

First Grade News

January 26, 2009

Religion: This week in our Bible time we will learn about Jesus calling His disciples and the big catch of fish. Memory verses: Jesus said, "I have come to call sinners to repentance." Luke 5:32 "Come follow Me," Jesus said, "and I will make you fishers of men." Matthew 4:19

Spelling: Our core words for study this week are : in, is, you. Again we will be fixing and "stretching" sentences and will review the patterns for short vowel sounds in words.

English: Lessons this week are on adding s to present tense verbs and how to correctly write book titles.

Reading: We have come to the end of our third reading book and will have a test on the skills and vocabulary words throughout the week.

Math: We will be working on sorting common objects and adding two digit numbers using dimes and pennies.

Science: We will be starting our unit on weather. If possible go over the weather forecast with your child each day.

Social Studies: The Chinese New Year is on Monday and we will be learning about that along with our Studies Weekly Magazine.

FYI: Mrs. Hepner will be bringing us hot dogs for our camping day! Your child does not need a lunch on that day, Friday, January 23.

Report cards will come home this Wednesday. Please sign the envelope and return just the envelope to me.

Children in Kindergarten through second grade will be singing in church on February 15th in the 10:30 service. Please put this on your calendar! We would love to have every child sing that Sunday!
