UNITARIANS

The Catechism of the Hungarian Unitarian Church in Transylvania summarizes a Unitarian view. It says:

"We do not call Jesus God, because we know that he was in reality a man. We know that Jesus was a real man from the Gospels, where he first called himself a man, and the son of a man. But his real humanity is verified by his whole life as well: he was born, grew up in body and spirit, was happy, sorrowful, hungry, thirsty, suffered and died."

- 3) Why don't Unitarians call Jesus God? _____
- 4) What happened to Jesus during his life that Unitarians believe verifies Jesus as man?
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____
 - d. _____
 - e. _____
 - f. _____
 - g. _____

This is a common Unitarian position on Jesus. Still in the Unitarian church there is no creed and no interpretation of the Bible to which you must all agree. Everyone is free to make up their own mind about Jesus.
